Annamalai University, one of the largest residential universities in Southern Asia, was established and incorporated in the year 1929 as per the Annamalai University Act, 1928 (Tamil Nadu Act 1 of 1929). The Annamalai University Act, 1928 was repealed and replaced by the Annamalai University Act, 2013 (Tamil Nadu Act 20 of 2013). The Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu is the Chancellor of the University.

This University has, since its inception, been aiming at imparting education in all fields of knowledge to thousands of students from across the country and abroad. Located in a rural setting in the coastal district of Cuddalore in Tamil Nadu, the University has played a pivotal role in providing access to higher education to lakhs of youth from economically and socially disadvantaged classes. In this respect, this University's service to the nation is remarkable.

In the past 95 years, the University has grown into a premier institution of higher learning and research. The University today is spread over an extensive campus of more than 800 acres and has the Faculties of Arts, Science, Marine Sciences, Indian Languages, Engineering and Technology, Education, Fine Arts, Agriculture, Medicine, and Dentistry in all, and comprising 55 Departments of Study.

Annamalainagar is a busy and self-contained University township, east of Chidambaram town, the abode of Lord Nataraja, the Cosmic Dancer. The sprawling and scenic campus enclosing the Departments of Study, Students' Hostels, Staff Quarters, Playgrounds, etc., is situated at a holy place (Tiruvetkalam, currently known as Annamalainagar), 2 kms from the Lord Nataraja Temple.

The University was brought under the ambit of the Govt. of Tamil Nadu by the enactment of Annamalai University Act 2013 (Tamil Nadu Act 20 of 2013). The Act of 2013 has been amended by enactment of Act No.32 of 2021 to render the university as an affiliating type. Consequently, the colleges situated in the districts of Cuddalore, Villupuam, Kallakurichi and Mayiladuthurai have been affiliated to Annamalai University.

The Sir C.P. Ramaswamy Aiyar Library of the University is the third biggest in Tamil Nadu and has a collection of more than 5 lakh volumes besides journals, reports and rare palm-leaf manuscripts. It has all the modern facilities such as Internet, Microfilming, Inflibnet, RFID etc.

The University plays a vital role in disseminating knowledge acquired through research to the surrounding rural areas in which it is placed and it serves the larger community through its Centre for Rural Development, the Department of Community Medicine, Dental College, the NSS; and above all, through its Centre for Distance and Online Education, it takes education to the doorsteps of thousands of adult learners.

The Centre for Distance and Online Education, established in 1979, offers different programmes of study. OBJECTIVES

The Centre for Distance and Online Education, Annamalai University was established in 1979, with the objectives of expanding and providing alternative and life-long educational opportunities to all those who could not get entry into the conventional system of education, through a combination of teaching and providing self-learning materials for study at each one's own pace and leisure.

Annamalai University has switched over to Semester Pattern in line with the prescription of the Higher Education body in the sphere of distance education, i.e., Distance Education Bureau (DEB)-UGC and higher education accreditation body, National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).
